PREFACE

The OSEP Center on Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) is grateful to students, educators, families, researchers, and many others who have worked tirelessly to improve educational outcomes for all students and who have contributed to our understanding of the critical practices and systems of PBIS.

These materials have been developed to assist local and state education agents to improve their capacity to address school climate and PBIS for all students.

Authority for and use of the terminology “Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports” was first indicated in the Individuals for Disabilities Education Act of 1996, and has been referenced in subsequent reauthorizations in 2000 and 2006. The priority for this Center was developed in 1997. In this document PBIS is used as equivalent to “School-Wide Positive Behavior Support” (SWPBS), “School-wide Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (SWPBIS), and “Multi-Tiered Behavioral Frameworks” (MTBF).

The contents of this technical paper were developed under a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) (#H326130004) and Office of Safe and Healthy Students in the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education. Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports Implementation Blueprint

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports Implementation Blueprint is to guide leadership teams in the assessment, development, and execution of action plans. The outcome is the development of local capacity for sustainable, culturally and contextually relevant, and high fidelity implementation of multi-tiered practices and systems of support.

The PBIS Implementation Blueprint is organized in two major sections:

Part 1	Foundational and Supporting Information	The PBIS Implementation Blueprint is grounded in the behavioral and prevention sciences and emphasizes within a multi-tiered support system framework (a) measurable outcomes, (b) evidence-based practices, (c) implementation systems, and (d) data for decision making. In Part 1, foundational content and guidelines are described in relation to PBIS implementation Self-Assessment and Action Planning .
Part 2	Self-Assessment and Action Planning	State, county, regional, and district leadership teams should regularly assess the status of factors or drivers associated with systemic implementation of the PBIS framework. Self-assessment results are used to develop and modify action plans designed to achieve local capacity for establishing and sustaining high fidelity implementation of the PBIS framework. In Part 2, the self-assessment tool and action planning template are provided.

PROCESS

The PBIS Implementation Blueprint Self-Assessment and Action Planning process is organized around implementation drivers or elements highlighted in the following figure. These elements also are considered when conducting systemic implementation activities related to, for example, resource mapping, practice alignment and integration, program evaluation, and local capacity development.

PBIS SELF-ASSESSMENT SELF-ASSESSMENT AND ACTION PLANNING

Center on Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports

This self-assessment has been designed to serve as an action planning guide for (a) appraising the status of drivers or elements related to supporting the implementation of positive behavior intervention support (PBIS) systems and (b) developing and evaluating PBIS implementation action plans at the state, regional, county, and district levels. This self-assessment also can be used by other organizational units (e.g., large schools, special/alternative schools, educational facilities).

Guidelines for Use

1. If needed, identify a facilitator who is fluent with systemic PBIS implementation process and blueprint elements and can guide assessment and action planning.
2. Form team comprised of behavior-related leadership personnel who are responsible for establishing and coordinating implementation of PBIS practices and systems.
3. Collect and use assessment results to develop and monitor an implementation action plan that will enhance local implementation capacity.
4. Conduct resource mapping (identification, alignment, integration, adaptation) of existing behavior-related efforts, initiatives, and/or programs to maximize use and impact of existing resources.
5. Review existing data: (a) behavior-related (e.g., suspension/expulsions, screening outcomes, behavior incidents, discipline referrals, attendance, achievement scores, dropout rates, school climate, student/family surveys) and (b) implementation fidelity (e.g., Tiered Fidelity Inventory, School-wide Evaluation Tool, Benchmarks of Quality).
6. Rate general implementation status as IP = In Place (>80%), PP = Partially In Place (50-80%), or NP = Not In Place (<50%).
7. Prioritize implementation elements for action planning with respect to importance of short and long term student outcomes and need for systems level capacity development.
8. Review implementation elements to develop actionable steps for multi-year action planning (1 year, 2-4 years, and 5+ years).
9. Emphasize use and organization of existing resources for implementation of action plan.
10. Review progress on action plan activities and outcomes at least monthly.
11. Conduct annual evaluation and updating of action plan implementation fidelity and outcome progress.
